from Refreshed and Refined Interiors

Pam has been an active volunteer in our community for many years now. Pam's profession feeds her passion for creating beautiful and functional spaces for people to enjoy. Because of her genuine love for this community and appreciation for the important work that our healthcare sector provides, Pam was excited to volunteer to help transform this vacant farmhouse into a beautiful and comfortable place for healthcare professionals to stay while helping with our community's healthcare crisis.

www.refreshedandrefined.ca

Thank you to Pam for lending your skills to making the dream work here at the Gartshore Farmhouse!